Pro Bono Honors Pledge

Pursuant to Howard University School of Law’s long tradition of support for the legal profession’s responsibility to work towards equal justice and human rights for all people, and to provide significant pro bono hours in that endeavor, I agree to volunteer a minimum of:

- 50 hours (J.D.)
- 25 hours (LL.M.)

with a law-related non-profit, public interest law firm, and/or a community service organization serving disadvantaged or underrepresented populations during my time at HUSL. I understand that this pledge is voluntary and that it is my responsibility to track and report my hours on a consistent basis and comply with the regulations set forth in the Howard University School of Law Pro Bono Honors Pledge Program Student Guide.
